

Rules that govern broadcast ownership must serve the public interest rather than private interests. On June 2, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules or even make them more stringent to block media consolidation. I wish to see you encourage a variety of viewpoints to fill our media. This issue is of vital interest to me and I will be watching your actions carefully.